

Zoom Coffee Break Sessions

During some workshops, ICERM hosts optional “Coffee Break” Zoom sessions designed for informal discussion amongst workshop participants. These sessions always use a regular Zoom Meeting, even when the primary workshop sessions are happening as Webinars.

Breakout Rooms

Zoom's Breakout Room feature can be used during coffee breaks to split larger coffee breaks into smaller groups. If you wish to have a discussion with a small group of users during a coffee break, please join the main coffee break session and then send a chat message to the ICERM staff monitoring the coffee break. They will split you off into a breakout room.
